Panel Questions

1. How does NOAA information benefit you in your work?
   - What types of NOAA information, analyses, decision support systems and other products do you use?
   - How do you use NOAA information and products?
   - How does the use and availability of NOAA information hinder or aid your ability to accomplish your goals?

2. How do you access NOAA information?
   - How and when did you begin using this information?
   - Is it in a usable format?
   - How often do you use/access NOAA information products?
   - What hinders or facilitates your ability to use NOAA information?
   - Do you share the information with others?
   - Are you engaged with NOAA in co-shaping, co-designing, framing information and decision support systems to augment relevance and usability?

3. What other information streams do you use and why?