

Review of actions since November 2023

Action	Status
The SAB will transmit the EISWG observing system backbone report to NOAA.
The SAB will transmit the recommendation to NOAA that TSTAP be a freestanding working group of the SAB, and to include its updated terms of reference for NOAA's consideration and decision.
The CIAO and the SAB office will provide a list of the summary of comments by SAB members on their experience with CI reviews.
The SAB will transmit the EISWG report on gap-filling radars to NOAA.
The SAB will transmit the CWG operational oceanography report to NOAA with a transmittal letter addressing the concerns raised about the nuances of NOAA's role and the operational oceanography
John Kreider, Jon Allan, and Martin Storksdieck will scope out a topic and approach for the March 2024 SAB Meeting	